Also includes state maps that show the trails' locations. For each state, you'll also find a brief description of the "don't miss" trails for that state. -- The Ten-Mile Canyon Trail (CO) passes through and over the Rocky Mountains' Continental Divide; its highest peak goes through Vail Pass, 11,000 feet above sea level -- The Overseas Heritage Trail (FL) crosses historical trestles and bridges from island to island; goes from the mainland of Florida to Key West -- The Cape Cod Rail-Trail (MA) follows the Cape Cod Peninsula near the well-known Cape Cod National Seashore -- The Washington and Old Dominion RR Regional Park Trail (VA) goes from the Appalachian Mountains to Washington, DC -- The Elroy-Sparta State Park Trail (WI) passes through an Amish community and goes through three historic railroad tunnels -- The George S. Mickelson Trail (SD) passes by the Crazy Horse Monument near the Mt. Rushmore National Monument
