Kyuzo Mifune (1883-1965) began Judo as a child, and in 1920 was awarded the highest possible rank of 10th dan - the only man ever to reach this height. Called the "god of judo", he was so famous that '10th-Dan' replaced his name! Legend has it that in his sixty years of practice he never lost a match and was never thrown. This book is a totally revised edition. The original was published in 1960, and played a big role in founding the International Judo Association, and in helping judo to become an Olympic sport in 1964. Shortly before his death Mifune revised his work. This new edition includes the revisions as well as corrections.
