Tom Barrett had a 1933 Cadillac V-16 Town Car he wanted to sell; Russ Jackson came to see it. How this simple meeting between two car buffs in Scottsdale, Arizona, in 1960 started what would someday be the most prestigious collector car auction in the world is the story told in "Barrett-Jackson: The Standard for Classic and Collector Cars".

Highlighting the most important collector cars ever offered, with unique photographs of the cars, this book follows the unfolding of a life-long friendship and business partnership from the start in 1960, to the legendary "Fiesta del los Autos Elegance" in 1967 to present-day high-tech family-run business, it is a story of success built on passion for collector cars.
