? Beautifully produced collection of unforgettable faces ? Three decades of work by internationally known phtographer What catches Ira Nowiski's eye as a photographer is people?the best poets of North Beach, opera divas radiating passion, cigar-smoking old Italians, tenant organizers, and an alert, shirtless old man in a boxer's stance. He explores the timeless virtues of courage and dignity and the human spirit in these eloquent and powerful photgraphs, many of them in the collections of leading museums.
