Voyageurs National Park and the Boundary Waters Canoe Area Wilderness together comprise some one and a quarter million acres of the wildest country in the United States. This nearly roadless region of lakes, bogs, and forests in northeastern Minnesota is a mecca for canoeists from around the world. Veteran paddler James Churchill guides readers to great paddling and camping destinations. Maps, detailed route descriptions, and a wealth of planning tips make this an indispensable guide for the modern voyageur. Features include: -An overview of what to expect and how to prepare-Detailed maps showing access points and routes-Information on each waterway's character, difficulty, and the best times to paddle-Lists of local paddling organizations and information resources-Trips to thrill experienced paddlers and novices alike -Historical importance and wildlife
