California is home to some of the most beautiful and luxurious spas in the country.

Beautiful Spas and Hotsprings of California features on the magnificent settings, the stunning architecture, the immaculate facilities and the general ambiance at the most spectacular spas and hot springs resorts in California. Some of these destinations are unabashedly luxurious (think the desert, movie-star glamour), while others are more modest (think redwoods, Zen retreats). You can visit them all, though, for the photography of Melba Levick and the text of Stanley Young frame and describe each resort in such a way that one can almost feel the overpowering sense of well-being and relaxation that draws millions of visitors to them each year. All the spas and hotsprings in the book are suitable for a delightful get-away, a week's vacation, or "bounce-back" weekend in a comfortable and natural setting.
