Families who want to explore nature in an urban setting through hiking, biking, camping, fishing, and other outdoor activities now have the ultimate resource. This book offers dozens of suggestions for fun learning for both you and your children, from toddler to age 11: - Kayak the Hudson River, free of cost, with your child, at nonprofit boat-rental facilities- Enjoy a sleep over next to the NY Aquarium shark tanks with your kids.- Watch for red-tailed hawks nesting on Fifth Avenue skyscrapers; wild turkeys in Manhattan's Riverside Park; ring-neck pheasants in Brooklyn; deer on Staten Island; flying squirrels in Queens; even a bald eagle in Manhattan!- Tend a family section of one of the city's community gardens. All activities are rated per age appropriateness--from stroller accessible to toddler friendly to moderate to strenuous (up to 11 year olds).
