Whether it’s rafting down the Chattooga River, hiking along the Bartram Trail, or sea kayaking around Cumberland Island National Seashore, Georgia is chock full of opportunities for outdoor enthusiasts of all abilities. Written to steer campers away from concrete slabs and convoys of RVs, The Best in Tent Camping: Georgia profiles the state's most scenic and serene campsites, from Amicalola Falls State Park, starting point for the Appalachian Trail, to the windswept dunes of Cumberland Island. Each of the 50 sites is rated for beauty, noise, privacy, security, spaciousness, and cleanliness. Also included are details on facilities, reservations, fees, and restrictions, as well as an accurate, easy-to-read map and suggestions for nearby recreation and sight-seeing.
