The new edition of this popular work-travel guide explores exciting jobs and careers for anyone interested in putting more travel into their lives. Dispelling 54 myths, exploring key motivations, and outlining effective job search strategies, it surveys hundreds of jobs in business, government, and education, including the travel and hospitality industry, non-profit organisations, international organisations, education institutions, and consulting. Includes opportunities involving airlines and cruise lines, international jobs, travel agencies and tour operators, internships and volunteering, hotels and resorts, military and merchant marine, teaching abroad, travel writing, and short-term work experiences. Provides invaluable tips and includes names, addresses, telephone/fax numbers, e-mails, and websites for contacting potential employers.
