Introducing the work of 20 of the ancient world's greatest authors, this work presents brief, readable essays, fully illustrated with quotations from modern (and some ancient) translations. The writers covered include Homer, Sappho, Herodotus, the Greek tragedians, the comic poets, sexy and subtle love poets such as Catullus, and vicious but witty satirists like Martial and Juvenal.

This book, which I began to read online when it was originally published in Daily Telegraph, is not a scholarly work, but very simple and lucid,and serves as a guide book to good translations in English of Greek and Latin literature.
