Legends of Glory and Other Stories contains a novella and eight short stories by award-winning author Harry Mark Petrakis. In a departure from his previous, highly regarded work, Petrakis offers a fresh perspective in the novella "Legends of Glory". For the first time Petrakis deals with the traditions and emotions of a small Midwestern town caught in the whirlwind of the Iraq War. In a communal rite of morning, each character embodies a different voice, a different perspective, in regard to patriotism. Although the novella relates to the sacrifice of one young man, the grieving of his parents, and the conflicts of a family, it explores human emotions as old as war itself.
