Every Living Thing

For more than twenty years, James Herriot has captivated millions of readers and television viewers with tales of the triumphs, disasters, pride and sometimes heartache that filled his life as a vet in Yorkshire dales.

Every Living Thing shines with the storytelling magic that has made him a favorite the world over. It also reveals more of the real James Herriot than ever before.

Here is a book for all those who find laughter and joy in animals, and who know and understand the magic of wild places and beautiful countryside.

If Only They Could Talk

When the newly qualified vet, James Herriot, arrives in the small Yorkshire village of Darrowby, he has no idea of the new friends he will meet or adventures that lie ahead.

It Shouldn't Happen to a Vet

How on earth did James Herriot come to be sitting on a high Yorkshire moor, smelling vaguely of cows? Now firmly settled into the Darrowby-based practice, James isn't sure. But he still loves it – and still has plenty to learn….

Let Sleeping Vets Lie

With two years experience behind him, James Herriot still feels privileged to be working on the beautiful Yorkshire moors as assistant vet at the Darrowby practice. Time to meet yet more unwilling patients and a rich cast of supporting owners.

Vet in Harness

The Yorkshire dales have never seemed more beautiful for James – now he has a lovely wife by his side, a partner's plate on the gate and the usual menagerie of farm animals, pets and owners demanding his constant attention and teaching him a few lessons along the way.

Vets Might Fly

A few months of married bliss, a lover's nest in Darrowby and the wonders of home cooking are rudely interrupted for James Herriot by the Second World War. RAF training proves tough for James – but you can't keep a good vet down…

Vet in Spin

James Herriot, strapped into the cockpit of a Tiger Moth trainer, has swapped his Wellingtons and breeches of sheepskin boots and a baggy flying suit. But he hasn't found a new profession; finally the RAF will come round to his point of view.

The Lord God Made Them All

The war is over, the RAF uniform has been handed in and James Herriot goes back to where he ought to be – at work in the dales around Darrowby.
