Day and night, through rain and snow, his canary yellow taxi rolls on through the energy filled city that never sleeps: New York City. Through the eye of his camera Bradford observes people from all corners of the world living their lives in the shadow of skyscrapers that rise up like mountains. The rain blurred lights of Broadway, the lofty grandeur of the Empire State Building floating by, the Avenues teeming with life. Drive-By Shootings presents a black & yellow look at the stories and artistic aspects behind an obsessive hunt for images.

很有趣的人，先做过广告创意、专职摄影师等行业，后来就去当出租车司机，以他的原话描写，他的行业是开出租车和摄影，或是摄影并开出租车...出租车就是他的变焦镜头。他镜头下的纽约很鲜活，他的文字也很有趣。 (APR 23, 2008)
