Verb Crisis examines architectural solutions to the extraordinary conditions of a world that is increasingly dense and interdependent. It presents innovative projects and investigations through original photos, essays, and exclusive interviews with key figures from architecture and urban planning to environmental, economic, and global affairs. Verb Crisis tackles the conflict between the physical limits of architectural design and the demands on the practice for an updated social relevance.

Projects include: FOA, Teddy Cruz, Shigeru Ban, Elemental, Boris B.Jensen, Hilary

Sample, John May, Jacobo García Germán, Markus Miessen, Interboro Partners, MVRDV and Takuya Onishi.
