"With Velouria, Daren Shiau attempts a new genre and continues to excite. His grasp of narrative is as firm as ever. Velouria is going to change the way we look at Singapore fiction."

Professor Kirpal Singh

Singapore Management University

"Daren Shiau writes with that stirring blend of ache and possibility that trips up the heart from unexpected directions. His works are Polaroids, and within the frame every line is poignant with economy."

Toh Hsien Min

Editor, Quarterly Literary Review Singapore

"Smudging the boundaries, Daren Shiau lets loose ideas and possibilities for readers to find their own music in nostalgia and the missing parentheses."

Yong Shu Hoong
