As I wrote The Purpose-Driven Life, I prayed you would experience the incredible joy that comes from knowing God's purposes for your life, I admire you for your interest in this book. It shows you want to know your purpose, and God loves that. You'll learn the big picture-how all the pieces of the puzzle fit together. This perspective on life will reduce your stress, increase your satisfaction, help you make better decisions, and most importantly, prepare you for eternity.
