Benjamin Mee decided to uproot his family and move them to an unlikely new home: a dilapidated zoo on the English countryside, complete with over 200 exotic animals. It was his dream to refurbish the zoo and run it as a family business. There was much work to be done, and none of it easy. Tigers broke loose, money ran low, the staff grew skeptical, and family tensions ran high. Then tragedy struck. His wife had a recurrence of a brain tumor, forcing Benjamin and his children to face the heartbreak of illness and the devastating loss of a wife and mother. But inspired by her memory and the healing power of the incredible family of animals they had grown to love, Benjamin and his kids resolved to move forward. The Mee family opened the gates of the revitalized zoo in July 2007.

评论

好感动！读完以后巨想去动物园

电影果真是改得面目全非。。有几处看着看着我也笑了。买了个动物园现实得很，你以为能有多有趣啊所以书里基本都是处理准备工作琐碎事可以接受。比较有意见的是其实前半部分都是作者最开始怎样疯癫去法国生活，作者老婆逝去的二三事。可怜这么个老婆在电影开头就卖咸鸭蛋去了
