This is a fantastic new collection of short stories from one of the world's best science fiction writers, Robert J. Sawyer. He is a Hugo and Nebula award winning writer. This is a dedicated mailing and e-mail campaign to targeted sci-fi related media & organizations. This volume brings together sixteen short-stories from one of the best-loved and critically acclaimed science fiction writers of all time, Robert J. Sawyer - winner of the Hugo, Nebula, and John W. Campbell Memorial Awards. In "Identity Theft", readers will discover the dark secret of the only priest on Mars, revisit H. G. Well's Morlocks from the masterpiece "The Time Machine", and learn what might really ensue if aliens allowed us access to the "Encyclopaedia Galactica". With each short story featuring a commentary from Sawyer himself, this is a must-have volume for science fiction fans everywhere.
