As the popularity of Elizabeth Kostovaas bestselling "The Historian" proves, thereas always an audience bloodthirsty for quality, page-turning horror. Now, in a marvelously horrifying turn, John Marksaa former "60 Minutes" producerasinks his satirical teeth into twenty-first- century media. In "Fangland," Evangeline Harker is an employee of the legendary TV news magazine "The Hour." Sent on assignment to Transylvania, she delivers more than a story when mysterious e-mails, coffins, and a creepy guy named Torgu descend on the New York office. This darkly funny tale will appeal to vampire and horror aficionados as well as anyone whoas fed up with what passes for anewsa today.
