Be cautious; reading too many of Peter Lovesey's stories at once could have unexpected results. Among the fifteen tales are two featuring Peter Lovesey's forthright police detective, Peter Diamond, and two with the amateur sleuth, Bertie, Prince of Wales, in rumbustious form. The collection also includes "The Pushover," winner of the Mystery Writers of America's Golden Mysteries short story prize.

Lovesey, a past chairman of the Crime Writer's Association, has won honors around the world, including the Gold and Silver Daggers, the Macavity, and the Grand Prix de Litterature Policiere. Do Not Exceed the Stated Dose includes a complete checklist of Peter Lovesey's crime writing.
