The Story of a Gentle God. The purpose that we are all here for is the pursuit of truth

Tha challenge to this is:

Are we willing to ask the great questions?

Are we willing to seek, to uncover to discover, Truth?

This then is the path:

If we are to know,

we must ask, question everything.

"Call to me and I will answer you, and tell you great and unsearchable things."

Jeremiah 33:3

And if we hear a voice not to question a thing, understand that is mans voice, not God's.

As God rejoices in our seeking, and will answer us.

For unless we ask, we will never discover our Gentle God,

and until we do

man cannot seem himself as good: "in God's image".

and cannot evolve to the gentle compassionate being,

That is our absolute destiny.

"The earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the benevolent goodness of the Lord,

as the waters cover the sea." Haakkuk 2:14

Welcome to the journey!

Seeking Truth: the language of God

Awakening God Within.
