heart of a book that also, in separate sections of albums and found objects, explores both the history of Towell's front porch and his outside journeys into the war zones of the world. Themes of land and belonging are woven together in an extensive autobiographical essay. The book is dramatically designed in the manner of an Edwardian album and accompanies retrospective exhibition touring the United States and Canada.

评论

这本书印制得极为精美，书的封面还有软垫，摸着很舒服，书内照片分作者收藏的陈旧

物证，和作者自己拍的照片两部分。短短一百多年历史的北美农业小镇，在这书里沉积了厚厚回忆。

Towell完败给他妈的相册

有点贵

土豪拉里关于自己内块地和家人的自淫。

平常的生活和碎片。书编排的很好

"The book is dramatically designed. Themes of land and belonging are woven together in an extensive autobiographical essay."

喜欢第二部分拍摄自己的家庭，宁静，活泼，美妙，充满生趣。

书评

照片 版式 都挺喜欢 还有书里面那些不经意的旧时光

我一直在关注人与土地的关系，土地是如何改变人的？当人们失去土地后，又是如何失去自我的？这些疑问也成为我所有作品中隐形的主题。” —...
