This work introduces Miss Ottoline Brown, an exceptionally inquisitive Mistress of Disguise, and her partner in crime, Mr Munroe. No puzzle is ever too tricky for the two of them to solve ...Ottoline lives in a stylish apartment in Big City with a small hairy creature called Mr Munroe. Together they look after the Brown family's eclectic collections - and dabble in a spot of detective work. So they are the first to the scene of the crime when a string of high society dog-nappings and jewel thefts hits Big City. Ottoline (who luckily has a diploma from the Who-R-U Academy of Disguise) and Mr Munroe go undercover - and expose an ingenious scam masterminded by furry feline crook, the Yellow Cat. This is a quirky mystery - adventure which is perfectly packaged and highly collectable.

Fantastic is every single line, with lovely pictures from which both kids and grown-ups can have a world of fun..., Um, One of best books I've ever had!

It is an easy-to-read, “quirky” and humorous book for young kids. For my part, I was especially attracted by Chris Riddell’s dedicated fine illustrations. I believe kids will be interested in many geographical and cultural details in this book. They may dream to become a responsible and smart child just like the heroine Ottoline.
