作者介绍:

Sinéad was born and raised in Dublin where she grew up surrounded by books. Her mother is an author of children's books. Growing up, Sinéad says she was inspired by watching her mother writing at the kitchen table and then being published. From that moment on, her childhood dream was to write a novel.

After university, she went to live in Paris and then London. It was at the age of thirty, while working as a journalist in London that she began to write creatively in her spare time. After a couple of years toying with ideas, she joined a creative writing group and began to write The Baby Trail. Shortly after the novel was published, Sinéad had a baby boy - a very happy ending to her own Baby Trail.

Since writing the book, Sinéad has moved back to Dublin where she lives with her husband and baby son. The second and last titles in the The Baby Trail series - A Perfect Match and From Here to Maternity, are also published by Penguin. Sinéad's latest novel is In My Sister's Shoes.
