Harold Enrico is that rare poet who combines the deepest traditions of our history, our spirituality, with the colourful imagery of the Pacific Northwest. Enrico's poetry has been selected for Chicago's "Poetry Magazine" and acclaimed by Theodore Roethke, George Woodcock and "Choice" magazine. His new book, "From Green to Gold", contains the finest poems from his four earlier collections -- "Now, a Thousand Years from Now", "Rip Current", "Dog Star" and "A Second Earth" -- along with a substantial section of new poems.
