Ageha's meddling may succeed in reuniting the Kuromine siblings, but her affect on the staff of VB Rose is getting more and more complicated! Her skills as an assistant are growing exponentially, much to the joy of all concerned, and her feelings for Yukari are quickly noticed by others (if not by Yukari himself). Unfortunately, Nagare proves that he likes manipulating people almost as much as his sister Mamoru. Ageha learns more about Yukari's family situation, which is alternately heart-warming and a little sad, and she learns the true meaning of the name, 'Velvet Blue Rose'.
