PreSchool-Grade 2--Tag Kissenbear introduces his teddy bear family and their seasonal activities in this eye-catching scrapbook. Colorful, detailed photographs depict the handmade stuffed bears spring cleaning, racing go-carts, trick-or-treating, and making snow sculptures. Each season is prefaced with a note by Tag, e.g., "I bet I could fill this whole scrapbook just with things I love about fall--jumping in piles of leaves, helping Mama bake her honey cake, going on hayrides&#226;&#128;&#166;,\" Daddy Bear adds a Halloween poem. The photographs have whimsical captions such as \"This Halloween, I dressed as a giraffe. It took me a while to figure out how to walk in the costume!\" The pages are adorned with fabric, buttons, and tiny toys. Stevenson's brilliantly clear pictures appear almost three-dimensional. Children will pore over the artfully arranged collages and be inspired to create family albums of their own.--Linda Ludke, London Public Library, Ontario, Canada Copyright &copy; Reed Business Information, a division of Reed Elsevier Inc. Card catalog description Bernard Kissenbear makes a scrapbook filled with all the things his family does in a year: spring cleaning, a summer barbecue, the fall costume ball, and the ice sculpture that Dad makes for the village square."
