 he dog was having a great (lay. His three main requirements for this were lots of foodï¼Œ Lapsï¼Œ and fun. ï¼ŒJust nowï¼Œ when he was sleeping in font of the fireplaceï¼Œ he even had a dream about flaying a game which involved hunting for hid-len Milk-Bones! Of courseï¼Œ his whole family was on his dreamï¼Œ tooï¼Œ all of them smiling and helping tim find the biscuits. He loved the Callahans note than anythingï¼Œ and felt very lucky that he was their dog. Unfortunatelyï¼Œ he woke up from lis nap when his cat friendï¼Œ Abigailï¼Œ jumped town on top of him fl om the mantlepiece. She )retended that it was an accidentï¼Œ but the (tog was pretty sure she had been oimi~g for him.
Chat was still ()kayï¼Œ thoughï¼Œ because it gave him great excuse to chase her.
 The dog was a little off balance as he jumped ~p to run after heL and he knocked several of
