wi¼Evi¼E ~l limbi¼E4 I[WU Do you think of yourself as a good or poor student? Many students see themselves as poor students and eventually become failures. Why? They become failures because they think they are. On the other hand, many good students make good gradesi¼E not because they are smarter than other studentsi¼E but because they believe in themselves and have good study habits. By simply picturing yourself as a good studenti¼E you are actually taking the first step toward becoming one. Everybody likes to be successful. Success is a feeling of confidence and achievement. It is making the most of your opportunities and choices. Yeti¼E success is different for different people. For youi¼E success may not be getting A s in school. Insteadi¼E it may be learning all you can about something that interests you. It may be getting the lead part in the drama club play or first chair in band. It may be being elected cheerleader or president of the student body. It may be simply getting a diploma. No matter what makes you feel successful in schooli¼E you can learn to make the most of your school experience.
