Chapter One

，“No!Please don’ t go away. ” Derby had woken up with a jolt. His dreams haunted him nightly. Derby Doodle was having dreams about a beautiful lady with long blonde hair, and the blue eyes. They were as blue as the sky. She is holding Derby in her arms. A man in a black cloth is pulling Derby away from her. She fights him. He touches her with a crystal, and she disappears. The dream has been waking Derby up every night for the past week.

Derby had got up from the floor, where he had a make shift bed made of old rags found around the junkyard.

Derby had been living in the junkyard for many years now with a family that obviously doesn’ t like him. The Fagas were an unusual family. Backo is his step brother.
