In this vibrantly illustrated picture book based on a classic ghost story, an imaginative teacher - who, like her students, happens to be "teeny tiny, " - takes her class on a walk one day and discovers a teeny tiny bone in the park. Later, back in their classroom, teacher and students alike are surprised when they hear a ghostly voice asking for its bone back. Fears subside when they classroom realizes they ve only upset a teeny tiny dog. Clever repetition and energetic, easy-to-follow text makes this a perfect book for read-aloud time, both at home and in a classroom... of any size!
