What do you do if you discover your wife is having an affair with your best friend?

If you're Lance Lerner-- successful author and obsessive worrywart-- you try to even the score by seducing your wife's best friend. Lance's problem is that his wife has two best friends- one a heart-stopping blond stewardess, and the other a plain-looking C.P.A. So obsessive-compulsive is Lance's personal moral code that, when he discovers it's the homely C.P.A. who's the closer friend, it is she he pursues.
