"Troubled wives and husbands often take it for granted that their marital discords are due entirely to alcoholism, whether the alcoholic is sober or is still drinking. Yet alcoholism rarely creates all these problems, and sobriety itself usually does not cure them."

"Our program is based on the conviction that most of us have the power to bring about substantial changes in our relationships and living conditions, by searching out and correcting our own shortcomings. As such changes occur, each of us will know what course of action is right for the particular time and situation."

Here you ll find guides to communication ...

"The quality of human relationships depends largely upon the way we communicate with each other."...

and the application of the Al-Anon program to a variety of situations and problems that occur in the alcoholic marriage.
