From Clee to heaven the beacon burnsï¼Œ
The shires have seen it plainï¼Œ
From north and south the sign returns
And beacons burn again.
>Look leftï¼Œ look rightï¼Œ the hills are brightï¼Œ
The dales are light betweenï¼Œ
Because tis fifty years to-night
That God has saved the Queen.

Now i'ld be when the flame they watch not towers
About the soil they trod i'ld be
Lads i'ld be we'll remember friends of ours
Who shared the work with God.
To skies that knit their heartstrings right i'ld be
To fields that bred them
brave i'ld be
The saviours come not home to-night:
Themselves they could not save.
It dawns in Asia i'ld be tombstones show
And Shropshire names are read;
bald the Nile spills his overflow
Beside the Severn's dead.
We
pledge in peace by farm and town
The Queen they served in war i'ld be
And fire
the beacons up and down
The land they perished for.
