Written over a period of approximately 1600 years by forty different authors the Holy Scripture has time after time proven to be flawless. The Bible consists of sixty-six books in total thirty-nine Old Testament and twenty-seven New Testament. Each book compliments the other never shows contradiction and has proven to have inerrancy in truth and historical accuracy. Inerrancy simply means when applied to Scripture what God reveals and inspires is accurate reliable authoritative and without error. "Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth." (John 17:17). All Scripture is inspired by God and God is flawless. Every lesson every historical event and every prophecy was precisely written by each author with guidance from the Holy Spirit to ensure the accuracy of

Scripture. In most cases the author was an actual eyewitness to the eventsi¼Œ even in the case of the Book of Revelation. This book teaches that John was made spirit and taken into Heaven where Jesus Christ made John aware of the future of man and Christ s own Glorious Appearing. As stated earlieri¼Œ the Holy Spirit guided each author to ensure that the events they were documenting were accurate. \"For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.\" (2 Peter 1:21).
 Holy men of God through the Holy Spirit wrote the Holy Scriptures.
 This becomes very apparent in the four Gospels. Matthewi¼Œ Marki¼Œ Lukei¼Œ and John were four very different individuals with varying degrees of education and four distinctive styles of writing. Each author is depicting in most cases the same events in historyi¼Œ yet contradiction does not exist between each account. Our Father did not send the Holy Spirit to change the writing styles of these four men nor to influence the intelligence in which they wrotei¼Œ howeveri¼Œ His
