 The Inner Planets
Astrologers divide the heavenly bodies of the solar sys-\\" ~\\" \"i¼\" n arrived at tern into three groups. 2nls cuvls~o was empirically¼ by observation of lhe apparent effect of the different bodies on human beings and human affairs.
The first group is the largest. It includes the Sun and tlle .Moon¼ which in astrology are known as the Lights.
The planets included are Mercury¼ Venus¼ and Mars.
These five bodies are called the personal planets. Their placement in the Signs of the Zodiac and in the houses of the individual s horoscope describe his innate tem->perament¼ his feelings about himself and others¼ and his persona! reactions to the everyday circumstances of his life. These are the planets offree wi1l¼ the ones which oiler us personal choices that we can control. Sinee these inner !~lanets are mainly concerned with our feelings and reactions to the normal taken-for-granted circumstances of our daily lives they present us with the opportunity to say "Yes" "No" or "Maybe." If we do not use the opportunities they give us to make decisions
