This classic text has always represented the primary patterns of exposition in writers' repertoires—accompanied by thoughtful explication and writing applications. Now, to enhance and extend its flexibility, the editors have added a thematic cluster of readings to each rhetorical chapter of readings—choosing themes relating to culture, behavior, and values—in effect creating a reader within a reader. Each theme is introduced briefly and all the readings in the chapter thematic and rhetorical alike are surrounded by prompts that encourage discussion, analysis, and writing. But that's not all. This edition also features the following revisions: ~ 25 new readings by carefully chosen significant writers, including Barbara Kingsolver, Scott Russell Sanders, Mary Karr, Mike Rose, and Louise Marmon

Silko.
\\" Considerably expanded introductory rhetorical chapters that explain and illustrate--in clear pragmatic language--the writing process and the techniques of critical reading.
~ Thoroughly revised apparatus and for each reading
 a new set of writing
 assignments
 "Read to Write."
