>to Codex: Chaos Space Marines This tome has but one purpose: to teach you the mysteries of collecting¼ painting and gaming with a Chaos Space Marine army in Warhammer 40¼000. For some of you this path leads to untold power and infamy¼ for others it holds nothing but endless damnation. Only your own prowess and the fickle favour of your Chaos god will determine which of these fates will be yours...
CHAOS
SPACE
MARINES
Ten thousand years ago the Imperium was racked by a terrible civil war called the Horus Heresy. The rebellion was led by Warmaster Horus¼ the most trusted of the Emperor's Primarchs¼ who had been led to believe by the Chaos gods that it was he¼ not the Emperor¼ who should be the leader of Humanity. Almost half of the Space Marine Legions of that time sided >with Horus¼ plunging the Imperium into a terrible galaxy-wide war from which it has never fully recovered. The war ended with the death of Horus at the hands of the Emperor¼ but the Emperor himself was mortally wounded and is now only barely kept alive by a life-support unit called the Golden Throne. With the defeat of Horus¼ the surviving Space Marines that had >followed him fled to the Eye of Terror - the greatest warp storm in the galaxy.

The Chaos Space Marines of the Traitor Legions¼ as they are now called¼ lurk there to this day¼ consumed by their hatred of
Emperor¼ the Imperium and all Mankind. Twisted by continual contact >with the Chaos gods¼ Chaos Space Marines have become a terrible canker >that eats at the heart of the imperium and they might¼ one day¼ have their revenge...

WHY COLLECT A CHAOS
SPACE MARINE ARMY?
A Chaos Space

Marine army is very similar to a normal Space Marine army: the bulk of its troops are elite and very tough – they wear excellent armour and are armed with a variety of devastating weaponry. The only real weakness of a Chaos Space Marine compared to his Imperial counterpart is that he has a (very sensible) desire to preserve his own skin and therefore does not benefit from the And They Shall Know No Fear rule that prevents loyal Space Marines from running away. On the other hand – a Chaos Space Marine army has access to an assortment of unique troop types not available to any other army. The most obvious of these are the myriad forms of Daemon that a Chaos Space Marine army can summon to help defeat their enemies. As Daemons must be kept in reserve – their points value is rather lower than their abilities would suggest and they make excellent assault troops with which to back up a Chaos Space Marine force. In addition to Daemons – there is a wide variety of Chaos Space Marines who follow weird and exotic cults and have exotic abilities to match. Examples of these include Khorne Berserkers – Plague Marines and Noise Marines amongst many others.
