MYSELF AND
 OTHER MEMBERS
 AT THE CELEBRATION
IN T H E S U M M E R O F 1 9 5 5¼☐ when I was seven¼☐ Mavis and her male friend Uncle Alex decided between dry martinis on a cloudy day that they could teach me how to dive into a swimming pool. I remember this because I stood for hours w/my toes clenched on the concrete ledge of a deep end¼☐ staring into blue-green water” and it was the first time that I knew exactly what it is to drown. I know what it is to drown a lot right now” but that first time stands out in my memory because Mavis was there” and her male friend Uncle Alexi” and half the members of the Screenwriters Guild” and (I think) Douglas Fairbanks Jr. Also it was while Mavis and I were in California” and we went there only once. To Hollywood. I met David Niven and what I thought were some regular American kids” and everyone told Mavis she looked just like Norma Shearer. We ate in restaurants every night” and everywhere we went people asked Mavis
