\ "LOVE WAITS ON WELC()MEi¼CE NOT ()N TIME\ " i~ (_ otlrse ln Miracle> (1i¼CE255) This is about love. Love of a man for a wonlan. A woman for a man. Romantic and sexual love. Conmlitted love.
 Some of us have had several opportunities to practice this coupling in our lifetime. 1 have. Andi¼CE I apologize in advance if this doesn t apply to you or meet your needsi¼CE l am coming from my own perspectivei¼CE my own experiencei¼CE because it is the only place I can come from.
 This is brainstorming for people like lne and maybe like you. We read books like How To Marrv. lhe Man Of Your Choicei¼CE or whatever the male equivalent is. We are the people who have tried single dances--piano barsi¼CE and not just to hear the music-ijoin church groupsi¼CE not for our spiritual development but for whoever might be there-- >travel to Club Med¼ not for the sports--join introduction >services--placel:~ers~nali¼ ads in the newspaper. For those of us who are\"io~)\"iclng~ for love in all the wrong places\"¼ as the song goes--for those of us who know it is wrong because it is not working. This is brainstorming for those of us who feel inadequate¼ and yes¼ even guilty¼ when we hear the question¼ \" ~¼ \" .

Are you seeing anyone?\" and we have to say \"No.\"
Some of us are survivors of the sexual revolution¼ a time when bed hopping was safe¼ at least from a health standpoint. A flyer taken at that time was not likely to end in a death experience. But¼ promiscuity never made us happy. It never satisfied our loneliness¼ the emptiness.
We felt worse after these casual sexual encotlnters. And we are still looking¼ or in the market¼ looking again.
The times are different now¼ and so are we.
