Preface
WORDS ~ ~ . WORDS ~ ~ . WORDS
All around us~there are words being beamed at the American woman.
Words from magazines~
Words from books~
Words from television~ Words from seminars for women~
all urging women to find their identity~learn to be aggressive~learn to be assertive~all perhaps well meaning but confusing. Instead of helping women to find identity
all
the words have persistently challenged everything female and have contributed to a severe identity crisis among American women.
It has been my experience in working with thousands of women over the past thirty years that women have begun to question who they are~what is their real role?
And they
ask themselves
"Is there a Creator God? What did He intend for me to be?"
I believe we all need a word from God.
May these words of wisdom from God supply part of the answer. MARY C. cRoWLEY
