I am profoundly grateful to my sons, Ryan and Darren, for their intrepid independence and solid affection during the long months I was sequestered in my office, preoccupied with our past; to my parenting ally, Howard, for his continued affection and wit despite an ex-wife who writes; to my friend, Larry, not only for saving my life but also for admirably braving the ups and downs of the sub-sequent years; and to my parents, Kay and Jerry, who ushered me and my four siblings through childhood with skill and intelligence, then gave us a lifetime of ever-richer humor and love. I thank my Fort Wayne friends, Joan Uebelboer, Cathryn Adamsky, Mary Ann Wanush, Carolen Collins, Ann Raber, Alice Gillam, and Jeanette Clausen, the war buddies and soul mates whotaught me during my formative years that motherhood was notonly a private passion but a political job.
