YA-- A historical romance set in 19th-century San Francisco. Jade and Jason are attractive, virtuous, courageous, quick-tempered, and madly in love. They must face the yellow journalism of the society press to save Jade's good name (Victorian morality abounds), the evil Chinese gangs, and the greed of someone whom Jade thought was a close family friend. There's also the inevitable lovers quarrel. The inclusion of Chinese lore, myths, and culture is an added bonus that increases Jade's appeal.
