Andy Williams once said, "Steve Allen does so many things, he's the only man I know who's listed on every one of the Yellow Pages." It is, in fact, difficult to believe there is only one Steve Allen. Not only is he the only comedian from the Golden Age of Comedy of the 1950s still appearing regularly on television, in his award-winning series "Meeting of Minds," but he has:

- ~ Created the "Tonight" Show and starred in the hilarious "Steve Allen Show" for NBC.
- ~ Written 20 books, including two novels as well as poetry and humorous and political works.
- ~ Starred on Broadway in The Pink Elephant.
- ~ Starred in motion pictures, most notably as Benny Goodman in Universal's film about the great jazz musician.
- ~ Performed his own one-man concert at Carnegie Hall.
