Once upon a time, women didn't worry about money. Daddy took care of things before you were married, and your husband took over after. But these days, life has changed dramatically, and no woman no matter where she is in her life can afford to carry around hand-me-down, outdated attitudes and expectations about money. In Making Change, Neale Godfrey—single mother, successful author, and entrepreneur—gives you empowering advice on how to take control of your financial life, whatever stage of life you're at: starting out on your own; coupling, uncoupling, and recouping; taking care of your kids and your older parents; taking care of yourself. Full of quizzes, planning tools, and inspiring anecdotes, Making

Change shows you how to discover your financial personality (Are you Clueless? A traditionalist? A Contemporary Classic?), and teaches you the life skills you will need to "make change" in the ways that count most. You ll learn about banking and budgeting; creating, maintaining, and repairing credit; saving and investing; and making important and responsible major financial decisions: everything you need to know to design and create the financially secure life you want—and deserve.
