ONE OF the oldest books in the world states, "Man is born to trouble as surely as sparks fly upward" (Job 5:7).

Never have these words been truer than today.

The whole world is sighing and suffering on a scale perhaps not known in human history: the refugees, the starving, the "new slaves," the psychological woes, the emotional turmoils, the broken marriages, the rebellions children, the terrorism, the hostages, the wars, and a thousand other troubles which beset every country in the world. There are no people anywhere that are immune. The rich and famous suffer as well as the poor and obscure. As the late actor Peter Sellers said, "Behind the mask of all us clowns is sadness and broken hearts."

It seems that the human race may well be heading toward the climax of the tears, hurts, and wounds of the centuries-- Armageddon!

Suffering is the common lot of all people everywhere-- believers and non-believers alike. But Christians often have their own particular types of sufferings in addition to the normal range of human miseries. Many times they suffer because they are followers of Jesus Christ. And many times they cry out with the psalmist, "Has God forgotten to be merciful? Has he in anger withheld his compassion?" (Ps.77:9).
