Pip doesn't expect much from life... His sister makes it clear that her orphaned little brother is nothing but a burden on her. But suddenly things begin to change. Pip's narrow existence is blown apart when he finds an escaped criminal, is summoned to visit a mysterious old woman and meets the icy beauty Estella. Most astoundingly of all, an anonymous person gives him money to begin a new life in London. Are these events as random as they seem? Or does Pip's fate hang on a series of coincidences he could never have expected?

不知道为什么，总是把Estella想象成小Deborah Gelly的脸。

Dickens has led us from comedy through tragedy to a heightened sense of reality, from darkness, irony, vanity to light, truth, and humanity. He is really a master of Realism and Pip is no doubt one of the most real and corporal character in English literature.

Our childish will gone with time and experience, only some true love survive, and keep push you, save you. People could change or say 'grown up', but instinctive character would survive, like 'bad still bad'. We should cherish good ones, do not hurt them. If you don't want be tumbled by conscience, don't let them have the chance to help.

名著就是不一样！

That was a memorable day to me, for it made great changes in me. But it is the same with any life.....think for a moment of the long chain of iron or gold, of thorns or flowers, that would never have bound you, but for the formation of the first link on one memorable day.

准确说是听完了。读了一半，但因为听完了，就少了读的动力…
