Time Out is known for seeking out the best venues in towns and cities around the world. Now, in the first of a new series, it applies that expertise to a whole country, selecting 30 of Italy's most inspiring destinations and taking you straight to the loveliest hotels, best eating and drinking and most compelling sights. Time Out commissioned over 30 Italophiles to write about the places they know, live in and love, persuading them to divulge their favourite restaurants and bars, research new and interesting places to stay, explore off-the beaten-track areas and interview experts on gastronomy, architecture, fashion and the latest trends. Specialists in travel, style and food and drink, our writers have drawn on their experience of and passion for the country to introduce undiscovered gems in an informative and inspiring way. All the major cities are included, plus scenic country and beach escapes and gems of art and architecture, and there are helpful appendices directing you to the perfect destination for your own personal Italian idyll.
