伤脑筋呀，没有读懂，去找中文译本看一看。博尔赫斯的脑子不是平常人的脑子。

神与人的区别

被“诗意”的设定吸引而蜻蜓点水读完毫无收获;
第二次在梦梦和咖啡的帮助下笼统读完。刚刚再扫一眼, 发现个人的信念和感情浸在每个细节(他推动的西语诗Ultraism的特点就是evocative imagery; 父子的视力丧失投影在insufficient light里)

不知所云…哪天重读遍再说吧…

He distorted and amazed.

Beautiful flow of language. But I definitely need another read to get a better understanding.

宇宙

Tony要我们读这个???

An interesting library that contains all the published books and the books will publish.
The library is a universe and nothing exists outside it. To search for a catalogue that contains all the books in the library is an effort in vain. Each book is somehow included in another book. An interesting tale against reductionism. Truth lies in infinity.

FA书品太好了吧!

the absurdity of infinite disorder and delirium 我要疯掉了

不明白在说啥……不过亲身经历来说，图书馆哪个熊孩子把万历五十年码错了柜吧害的我死活找不到，不过这种事最后也只能不了了之无头冤案，等三五年后或有或没有的胸口三颗痣的知心人窥见了

The world is infinity.

想看的书太多永远看不完这事...绝佳比喻：宇宙是一个永远达不到边界的图书馆: The library is a sphere whose center is any hexagon and whose circumference is unattainable

竟然读出了皮皮鲁传的即视感！

How much information does this library contain? (asked by Dr. Piantadosi in the Information Theory seminar)

文章超短4页，脑洞不错，语言有些晦涩，按照背景理解作者应该是个信上帝的。

靠目前脑力还不能完全理解

The Library will endure: illuminated, solitary, infinite, perfectly motionless, equipped with precious volumes, useless, incorruptible, secret.

可怕的笔力
