Do you believe in dragons? Ashley and I didn't -- until we went to the Logical I dude ranch. Strange noises in the middle of the night...a terrible smell coming from the well...things at the Logical I weren't logical at all! We were on the case!An old ranch hand, Dusty, said a dragon was behind it all. Ashley and I didn't believe him -- until we found giant pawprints outside our bunkhouse! Were we really on the trail of a dragon?
